

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1898.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Magnificent Display of Clothing, Gents' Furnishings and Shoes is That of Hechinger & Co., the Odd-fellows Hall Clothiers.

Among the many elegant city-like business houses in our town that of Hechinger & Co. ranks among the A. 1. Nowhere will you find an establishment of its kind that carries a more elegant line of merchandise pertaining to their business than they do. With them you find Suits for Men, Boys and Children that are perfect gems in the art of ready-to-wear clothing. Their stock of Shirts, Hats, Ties, Collars, &c., is perfectly bewildering in the number of styles and fashions.

In Men's Fine Shoes the House Stands Pre-eminent.

Visitors in our city during this week, after looking at the display Hechinger & Co. make in their windows, will agree with us that their mammoth establishment would be an honor to cities many times larger than Maysville.

We can safely add that all visitors that call in at their store will be cleverly treated.

THE BEE HIVE. Wash Goods at Half.

We have an unprecedented stock of Worthy Wash Goods that are marked at one-half their usual prices; and their washableness has been severely tested and not found wanting. At 12 1/2c. you'll find a great line of French Ginghams of regular 25c. value. Probably two hundred pieces of Domestic Ginghams, all different designs, that you are paying 15c. a yard for, are on sale here at 8 1/2c. Those Etolite Organzies at 50c. are selling like the proverbial hot cakes; and then there is piece after piece of Batistes, Lappetes, French and Egyptian Tissues, Cheviots, High-grade Organzies, and everything that goes to make up a wonderful wash goods stock. It will pay you to investigate.

Fancy Goods Fads.

If you're looking for anything new you'll find it here. We have a great stock of Fancy Jeweled Belts at 25c.; Leather Belts from 10c. to 50c.; and the latest "fad" in Belt Buckles and Slides at 25c. the set. We have also the Velvet Belting to fit the Slides at 20c. and 25c. a yard. All kinds and colors of faddy Dress Trimmings in Crinkled Chiffon at 49c. up.

Appreciative Carpet Selling.

Our Carpet sales have never been so large. It proves you appreciate our efforts to combine a great stock of choicest patterns and exceptional values at lowest prices. Our 50c. Tapestry Brussels is a great leader. A recent arrival is a large lot of Smyrna Rugs, 30x60, with or without fringe, at $1.39 and $1.59. They're worth a great deal more.

Money to loan at 6 per cent. J. M. Collins, No. 35 West Third street.

Mrs. Nancy Green of Richmond died, aged 87 years. She was the mother of F. M. Green, who for a quarter of a century was Editor and owner of The Richmond Register.

Murphy the Jeweler will receive in a few days a line of Cut Glass such as has never been seen in Maysville. The intending purchaser of bridal presents will do well to wait for his new stock.

Now's the Time and Here's the Place
The Palace Wickless Coal Oil Stove. Something entirely new. Lights and burns like Gas; no wick; no smoke; absolutely no danger. Must be seen to be understood and appreciated.
H. W. RASP, 33 West Second.

Hon. Garrett S. Wall is the proud possessor of a handsome hickory that has a history. It was cut by an old Confederate soldier from the bottom and center of the famous "crater" at Petersburg, where many a noble soldier's blood went out to enrich the soil, and is one of a vast number of young hickories that have sprung up there since the conflict. It was first given to the Judge's son, Mr. Garrett B. Wall now of Richmond, and by him given to the Judge.

Do you remember our exhibition of Gasoline Stoves at the last Fair? We have plenty of the same good sort left.
H. W. RASP, 33 West Second.

R. B. Lovel, the Leading Grocer, has something to say today that will interest all who buy berries and want to know where to get them fresh and good.

Attorneys, instructed by the State Campaign Committee, will file a suit testing the validity of the Election Law. An effort will be made to have the decision rendered by the Court of Appeals prior to the November election.

Captain Brewer's Vanceburg boys compose Company K of the Second Kentucky Regiment.

P. G. M. William H. Cox, Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, will leave tomorrow for Lexington to present his report to the Grand Encampment of Kentucky.

Susie Mayes and Susie Watson, sixteen-year-old girls from Mayfield, were arrested at Louisville because they ran away from home. The Mayes girl wore a man's attire and they were passing themselves off as man and wife.

THE LEDGER PRINTS THE REAL NEWS

For lack of $165, necessary to complete a fund of $1,500 required to keep the Y. M. C. A. Association of Newport on its feet, that institution closed permanently, owing to financial embarrassment.

The second annual Convention of the Kentucky State Assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be held in Louisville Tuesday and Wednesday. The address of welcome will be delivered by Rt. Rev. T. U. Dudley, D. D., Bishop of Kentucky.

The marriage of Miss Mary Edith Hill and Mr. J. Frank Mock will be solemnized at the Methodist Church, Aberdeen, at 2 p. m. Wednesday, June 1st. Miss Hill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Hill, and is one of Aberdeen's fairest and most popular young ladies.

Sunday morning while Colonel George Strawder was out looking over his hillside plantation his attention was attracted to the front of his residence by the cries of an aged colored woman who was standing at the gate. Upon investigation he found two large snakes about 5 feet in length stretched across the walk that leads to the house. He procured a 10 foot pole and held the snakes while a little colored boy mashed their heads off with a rock.

THE LEDGER DOES NOT FAKE ITS READERS

Miss Margaret Settle, daughter of Congressman E. E. Settle, and Mr. James W. Cunningham, Assistant Cashier of the Farmers' National Bank of Owenton, will wed June 22d.

SHAKE, LESLIE, SHAKE!

The "Mason County Advisory Board" Man Isn't the Pension Agent.

Hon. Leslie Combs of Lexington went down to Louisville yesterday at noon and took charge of Uncle Sam's Pension Agency.

This was tough on the Mason county man who was so enthusiastically(?) indorsed by the Congressman, and by the Mason County Advisory Board at the Congressman's request, and whose "indorsement" at once crept into an iron safe and has staid there ever since,—but it's all right.

Leslie, THE LEDGER congratulates you—all the more because you triumphed over the dirty methods that were resorted to for your defeat.

For Wedding Gifts.

It is the experience of many people that our store offers peculiar advantages for the selection of bridal presents. We have innumerable articles in silver designed especially for bridal gifts, for the dining-room, for the drawing-room, for the boudoir and for the library.

What we recommend is recommendable.

What we sell is sold exactly for what it is worth.

Everything guaranteed.

BALLENGER, Jeweler.

REAL NEWS!

There were no dispatches displayed yesterday at THE LEDGER Building for the reason that there was no news worth the cost of the telegrams.

THE LEDGER's splendid telegraphic service on second and third pages covers the whole field of news up to 6 o'clock this morning.

Telegrams received after 10 o'clock today will be posted in front of the office for the benefit of our friends the public.

Meanwhile, if you want news and not sensation, now is the time to subscribe—25 cents a month.

The foundation for Mr. J. Barbour Russell's residence is nearing completion.

L—L—L—Lindsay, Lovel, LEDGER! That's the way they came. Lindsay of Lewis county raised 'em, Lovel the Leading Grocer received 'em, and he yesterday sent to THE LEDGER the first home-grown Strawberries of the season.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

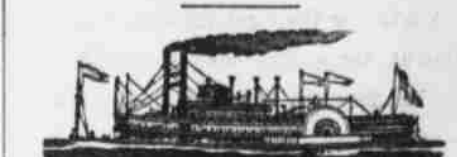

A Contributor Makes a Good Suggestion to Citizens of This Country.

When our country is in the midst of warfare it is but right that more heed be given the things which pertain to God and His ways. Soberly, reverently and prayerfully let all turn to invoking our God that He may guide, keep and hallow those leaders on sea and land to the end that victory, peace and National prosperity may sanctify anew the Banner of Liberty so dear to us all. No American but can from his heart repeat this beautiful prayer:

Almighty God, who in the former time didst lead our fathers forth into a wealthy place and set their feet in a large room, give Thy grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to us their children, that we may always approve ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning and pure manners; defend our liberties; preserve our unity; save us lawlessness and violence, from discord and confusion, from pride and arrogance and from every evil way. Fashion into one Godly people the multitude brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those whom we entrust in Thy name with the authority of government, to the end that there may be good government at home and peace with all the world. In the time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble suffer not our trust in Thee to fail. In His name who went about doing good. Amen.

Bed Spreads

A score of handsome White Quilts deserve a telling of their clean, fresh beauty. The refurbishing of the bed for spring has made them uppermost in housekeeper's thoughts. A word of these is timely.

AT 75c. EACH—Crocheted Spreads in choice patterns; full double bed size; ready hemmed.

AT $1.00 EACH—Finest Crocheted Spreads in a range of pretty Marcellus patterns; ready hemmed.

AT $1.50 EACH—Handsome Satin-finish Spreads in new and choice patterns. This is a recent arrival in the spread family and very serviceable.

CARPETS!

Axminster, handsome enough for the parlor, durable enough for the most-used room in the house—Carpets pretty now and that will stay pretty for years. We have just eight rolls, five exclusive patterns with rich borders to match. It isn't a question of who'll buy them. The question is, who'll be fortunate enough to get a share before the little lot is gone? Axminsters will cost more next time you think of them—they cost more today except at Hunt's. Here only 89c. a yard, which is less than even the better sorts of Tapestry Carpets sell at.
